

NEN-ISO 26000:2010 Self-assessment

Corporate social responsibility of organisations

The undersigned, Takashi Uchiyama, President Director of Krehalon B.V.,

hereby declare that they apply NEN-ISO 26000:2010, Corporate Social Responsibility of Organisations in all divisions of the organisation, and that they have investigated and assessed this in accordance with the process set out in NPR 9026+C1:2012.

The organisation declares that it applies the principles and guidelines of NEN-ISO 26000:2010 and that it will ensure that that continues to be the case. In the context of this self-assessment, this will be investigated and assessed at least once every two years.

With this self-assessment, the organisation provides substantiation and an elaboration of the choices made regarding its corporate social responsibility in the following areas:

1. Endorsement and application of the seven principles of CSR;
2. Identification and involvement of stakeholders;
3. The seven CSR core themes and 37 CSR topics;
4. Integration of corporate social responsibility across the organisation.

The results of the assessment are available at www.krehalon.com.

Name of organisation:	Krehalon B.V.
Location:	Deventer, The Netherlands
Street address:	Londenstraat 10
Postcode and town/city:	NL-7418 EE Deventer The Netherlands

Takashi Uchiyama
President Director

Place and date: Deventer, 29 July 2019