cher.otterspeer@nen.nl

The goal of this meeting will be to discuss and gather feedback on the final draft CWA, with focus on the implementation specifications for the GITB architecture:

- Core test bed
- Test repository and registry

We will also gather feedback on the proof-of-concept implementation and illustrate its use in the three pilot use cases:

- Public procurement
- Healthcare
- Manufacturing and automotive industries

We particularly encourage participation from e-business experts, test bed providers, SDOs, and industry associations who would like to benefit from GITB results and become part of the GITB testbed network.

The public review period for the draft CWA will be nearly finalised at the time the final plenary meeting is held. It will therefore also be an occasion to give feedback and/or to comment feedback already given during the public review period.
